What Your Sponsorship Makes Possible

THE TOOLS COST MONEY. THE IMPACT IS PERSONAL.

A stage, sound system, artists, screens, advertising, facilities, and volunteers create the setting. But the reason we do all of it is simple: people. These stories show what can happen when someone has a place to be welcomed, heard, prayed with, and pointed toward Christ.

IN 2026, MORE THAN 200 PEOPLE CAME TO THE PRAYER TENT. OF THOSE, 24 MADE FIRST-TIME DECISIONS TO FOLLOW CHRIST, AND 36 REDEDICATED THEIR LIVES TO HIM.

Names have been changed for privacy.

A Family Restored

In 2008, a daughter attended CCF with her father while her mother was struggling with alcoholism. As Ron Brown challenged fathers to be strong for their families and put God at the center of the home, her father listened closely. After the festival, he encouraged his wife to get help. The daughter later shared that her mother has remained sober and thanked CCF for helping change her family's life.

Michael - A New Direction

Michael was 13 when he came from a town about 45 miles away, mainly to get away from his parents. He had already experimented with drugs and alcohol. During the festival, an artist invited anyone ready to change their life to respond, and Michael raised his hand. A week later he called asking whether God was real for someone his age. We prayed, and he committed his life to Christ. Years later he was in church and youth group, had left drugs and alcohol behind, and had encouraged his family to attend church.

Kelly - Hope in a Dark Time

At 15, Kelly came with her grandmother carrying the pain of abuse and feeling very alone. She came to the Prayer Tent, where volunteers prayed and cried with her, and she gave her life to Christ. Later, she shared that during a very dark period she had considered suicide, but her relationship with Jesus gave her a reason to keep going. Prayer Tent volunteers continued to stay in contact with her.

Tom - More Than Shelter from the Rain

Tom came into the Prayer Tent simply to get out of the rain. Volunteers learned that he was homeless, found him some food, listened to him, prayed with him, and talked with him about God. During that conversation, Tom decided to give his life to Christ. Volunteers who saw him later around town said they could see a new sense of hope in him.

Dan & Helen - Recovery and Community: Two recovering addicts came separately, met through the ministry area, recommitted their lives to Christ, continued in recovery, and later helped form a Bible study and prayer group.

Tami - Finding Faith and Friendship: Tami came to the Prayer Tent looking for someone to listen. After more than an hour of conversation and prayer, she accepted Christ and later said she hoped to serve in the Prayer Tent herself.

YOU ARE NOT JUST SPONSORING A FESTIVAL.

You are helping keep the gate free, the Prayer Tent open, the Gospel visible, and a place ready for the next person who needs hope.

Would you prayerfully consider becoming a 2027 Christian Cross Festival sponsor?
